

I Want To Be A FASHION BLOGGER, it is the most prestigious international event linked to the modeling of the network marketing world, the only one that is a true style competition, beauty, resourcefulness and prestige, to search for future and future top model "social" (both men and women). Born in December 2015, after a careful study of the agency in the studies The Twins agency management, the final international of I Want To Be A FASHION BLOGGER hosting a technical committee composed of the most recognized professionals in the image world: designers, bloggers, manager , photographers and models / internationally renowned models. Every edition I Want To Be A FASHION BLOGGER offers contracts to be divided among the top four, including agencies in major world capitals of fashion and international brands in partnership, and a € 1,000.00 prize money to be spent on the platform "followers "the social network INSTAGRAM.

The brand I Want To Be A FASHION BLOGGER is run by efficient management Mother "The Twins agency management."

The articulation of the fashion award networks, relative to how the events take place within individual regions, will be structured as follows ...

FLASH CASTING

They are casting to be carried out on location as Restaurants, Pubs, Clubs and the like. The girls will have to make a recorded output with the institutional shirt and a second output with dresses as they please. You will parade in the location before a technical committee that will have to vote. As for the exposure of the dealers sponsors will have the roll up for the national institutional sponsors as well as posters to advertise their events. For local sponsors we recommend using a screen to project them in rotation or use other display systems to be placed within the location. The winning girls (the number is at the discretion of each regional dealer) pass to the next stage, the FASHION BLOGGER SHOW PROVINCIAL.

FASHION BLOGGER SHOW PROVINCIAL

The Fashion Blogger Provincial Show, are real parades show. In the locations, where possible, it will be necessary to mount a stage of minimum 8 mx 6 m and a walkway of 8/10 meters x 4 meters wide. The regional dealers will be provided of a PVC sheet of 3 meters x 3 meters, in which there will be the institutional image of the fashion award networks and the logos of national sponsors, to be placed on the stage as the bottom fifth. It may want to expose on a screen with rotating images local sponsors or even using banners to put on the bottom edge of the walkway or with signs to be put around the catwalk. The official releases that participating girls will necessarily have to be carried out are, the entry with the institutional shirts, the first exit with institutional costumes (where the technical committee will have to make the first vote) and a second output with elegant dresses owned by the girls, where the technical committee will have to make a second and final vote. It is advisable to invite the artists who can entertain the audience during the various phases of the evening, and as an interlude between the various changes of clothing for girls.

If you have sponsors that parade, you can increase the outputs of the girls dressing sponsor clothing or more sponsors.

After the release of the girls with their evening gowns, the boards of the vote counting and prepare for the various awards they should be withdrawn. The winning girls (the number per single evening is at the discretion of the regional dealers) will go to regional Blogger Fashion Show.

FASHION BLOGGER SHOW REGIONAL

Fashion Blogger Regional Show, taking place in the same manner of Fashion Blogger Provincial Show, but with an obviously more important tone. The Fashion Blogger Regional Show, who would have to declare the (minimum) 4 girls that will participate in the Fashion Blogger National Show, can also be divided, at least an evening to a maximum of four evenings. The arrangement of national and local sponsors sponsors is the same as Fashion Blogger Provincial Show.

In each of these stages, the / competitors must perform a slow enough casual demeanor, focusing on posture and posture, always having in hand their smartphone and taking selfies all the time (in addition to the official photographers present) which will then be selected and posted on their personal profiles instagram (and shared on facebook) with relative Hashatg of national, regional sponsors, provincial and primarily #iwanttobeafashionblogger #thetwinsagency and its tag connectioniwanttobeafashionblogger (list hashtag must be received by the agency licensee before each stage). Thanks all'hashatg

#iwanttobeafashionblogger, the main direction will in turn repost the best pictures on the official Profileiwanttobeafashionblogger

FASHION BLOGGER SHOW FINAL NATIONAL

We are in talks for a partnership is a national radio that a national TV to give visibility to all evenings of the regional and the national final dealers. The national final will last for three days of pre-final and final of 7 days when / the finalists will be placed inside a tourist facility and "supervised" 24 hours 24 from our cameras broadcast to the public on the web streaming, in the form of a real Reality.